President Does Not Reveal Steps He Has In Mind

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6 (P)-President Eisenhower raised today a possibility of government controls to hold the line against inflation and federal intervention to assure Europe enough oil.

In effect, Eisenhower seemed to be saying that if private enterprise doesn't act, government will. What steps he has in mind, the President didn't say. He emphasized at his news conference that he hoped to avoid government intervention. He has repeatedly criticized Democrats as being too prone to have the government step into business, and has stated that his administration lifted controls they affixed to the American

The subject of oil curled in big black question marks over the news conference.

Messages Recalled

A reporter reminded the President that in two messages to Sandys Hints Congress he had called on business and labor to police the profit and wage fields to help meet inflationary threats. West Waging "Secret War," Official Claims

MOSCOW, Feb. 6 (A)-A top So viet spokesman charged today the United States is waging secret war against the Soviet Union and other Communist states in an unprecedented espionage campaign. He spoke in a setting replete with theatrical effects and cloakand-dagger trappings.

L. F. Ilyichev, head of the Foreign Ministry press department, asserted the United States is guilty of "gross interference in the home affairs of sovereign nations. He told a crowded three-hour news conference - televised and broadcast to give it the widest possible publicity-that the United States is conducting spy schools in West Germany, violating Soviet air space regularly and smuggling agents into the Soviet Union.

"Agents" Introduced

Then he introduced four men he claimed had been slipped into Russia by the U.S. Intelligence service. The four, in turn, read prepared scripts of stories that American agents had ordered them to engage in spying and "diversionist activities.

Austria And The n Refugee Problem

Austria has a grievance against the West. In the face of Russian threats and abuse, this little country has admitted 170,000 refugees from Hungary since October. And, as her representative complained to the United Nations Refugee Fund the other day, 65,000 of them remain on her hands. On the basis of population alone, for Austria to admit 170,000 refugees is equivalent to the United States admitting more than 4 million. Austria feels that other nations are not doing their share. But to redistribute the population of Hungary throughout the world would obviously be quite a task.

West Germany admitted 10,000 and then called a halt. Other European nations are beginning to raise difficulties. Many of them would accept refugees temporarily, but fear that they might be forced to remain and might become a focus of discontent.

The Russians went through their usual performance at the meeting of the UN committee. Austria wants to do her share, but to get rid of refugees for which it has no room as soon as possible. Guess what the Moscow line is. That Austria, for some sinister purpose, is retaining refugees against their will. These poor people, the reds say, are eager to return to Hungary but aren't allowed to. This typical interference in the internal affairs of Austria was not followed by any Soviet offer to help relieve Austria of her burden. Few, if any, of the refugees would want to go to the USSR anyway, so that isn't impor-

But the record should show that Russia, elaiming always to be the spokesman for "the people" everywhere, is the one nation in the world that has stooped to denunciation of Austria for being kind to people.

These Days

By George E. Sokolsky

Power In New York State

Undoubtedly the largest power project in the world is the complex on both sides of the St. Lawrence River and the utilization of the Niagara. On the American side, this enormous task is being administered and operated by the Power Authority of the State of New York of which Robert Moses is chairman. This authority will shortly require $600,000,000 of new financing for Niagara, bond issues sold to the public, as this is to be a self-supporting enterprise.

A bill has been introduced in the United States Senate by Pennsylvania's freshman Senator, Joseph S. Clark, Jr., granting a license to the Power Authority of New York for Niagara's development under conditions which are unworkable. Of this bill, Robert Moses said in a telegram to a Buffalo newspaper:

. I was never consulted by Senator Clark of Pennsylvania nor were the officers and members of the staff of this Authority. We never heard of Senator Clark's activities in this connection until we learned he was introducing the original Lehman bill without the amendments necessary to make it workable and with a flamboyant publicity release exhibiting incredible ignorance of the Niagara Frontier power problem."

Why a Pennsylvania Senator who has never been associated with either the Niagara or St. Lawrence projects should suddenly emerge as the sponsor of a New York State bill can only be explained on the basis that Governor Averell Harriman, favoring an extremist position regarding public power, turned to the Liberal Party, the Americans for Democratic Action (A.D.A.) and western cooperatives for assist-

According to Moses, the Clark bill is in conflict with New York State laws and would immediately be attacked in the courts, thus delaying any possibility of private financing.

One of the problems faced is the utilization of power. The Authority maintains that it can develop enough power to sell to the municipal plants, cooperative, rural electrification associations within economical transmission distance in New York State and even in Pennsylvania and Ohio while also selling power to existing industries and new industries which can be brought to the Niagara

The organized building trades support the program of the Power Authority because it will increase work opportunities, but public power advisers to Governor Harriman do not seem interested. I quote from a letter signed by Martin T. Lacey, president of the Central Trades and Labor Council of Greater New York:

Refusal to consider the importance of industry will merely lead to the recession that is inevitable under the philosophy of those opposing the Reynolds and similar contracts. All this ideological hogwash about low-cost power without jobs and industry is economic foolishness."

The power authority, a non-profit organization created by the state, seeks to encourage such enterprises as Reynolds Metals and others to locate in northern New York so that it can sell its power to them. The Authority is operated in a businesslike manner and what it has to sell is cheap power to whoever wants to buy it. It will generate roughly 750,000 kilowatts and it needs customers for that load. The Aluminum Corporation of America has been in that area for half a century, is the largest employer of labor and the biggest taxpayer in St. Lawrence County. The real danger is that the public power fanatics, confusing the issue altogether, could develop a situation, particularly after a rock-slide in June 1956 destroyed an important Schoellkopf privately-owned power plant, whereby the manufacturer would be forced to move elsewhere. Water-power is only more advantageous

Despite the fact that New York State is highly industralized, the northern part of the state is under-developed. The real difficulty with this operation is that the Power Authority faces doctrinaire politics. For instance, the public power advocates believe that increased use of power by domestic consumers is indicative of prosperity. This is only true when those same domestic consumers have Jobs and the best way to make jobs is to encourage new industries to come into an area.

than coal-power when it is cheaper and the sites are equally suitable.

What is being done about the St. Lawrence and Niagara is of importance because it could become a model for other parts of the country. The utilization of a Power Authority, publicly created but privatelyfinanced and working on a non-profit basis, has worked successfully in the New York area for many years. A Visit With A Soviet Ball-Bearing Executive

By Joseph Alsop

KUIBYSHEV

Aleksandr Nikolaievich Vassiliev is a large, solid, slow-spoken man with a grayish, deep-lined face lighted by shrewd and intelligent hazel eyes. He is also a human phenomenon of intense interest for anyone who wishes to penetrate at least a little way into the great Soviet mystery.

Only twenty-six years ago, he decided that his father's life as a sturgeon fisherman in Astrakhan was not after all for him. At twenty-one, with no more preparation for a larger world than a decidedly inadequate primary education, he said goodbye to his family and the fishing boat and the nets; and he made his way to

In Moscow, he got a job as a metal polisher in a ball bearing factory. Thence, by endless night higher technical education, he struggle upwards to a post on the engineering staff.

He was on the factory's engineering staff when the Germans attacked. So he shared in the grim drama of the flight from Moscow, watching over his plant's machinery on the long. hard journey to Kuibyshev, and then working desperately to get partial production started again in some abandoned horse barns. He was rewarded with promotion to chief engineer, and six years ago he moved upwards once again, to become Director of the Order of Lenin Ball Bearing Factory Number Four. Aleksandr Nikolaievich is not yet one of the first ranking men in the new Soviet industry. His factory is only one element in a larger ball bearing trust, which in turn functions under the department for the ball bearing industry in the Ministry of Automobile Production. All the same, he is marked as a most successful man by the simple fact that his clothes fit him. He has a Soviet executive's tricts. Aleksandr Nikolaievich without concluding that he is an exceedingly able man. Maybe there really was something wrong with the glittering assortment of sample ball bearings in the case in his office. But the very look of Aleksandr Nikolaievich the very way he spoke, suggested that his ball bearings must be all right just because he had singlemindedly given his whole life to producing them. And he is now producing his ballbearings, judging by all external appearances, on a really impressive scale.

And we have also designed and built many machines ourselves, specialized for our needs. and are now putting in our first fully automated production line."

With careful precision he described the strange Soviet chain of industrial command - the role of the Ministry, the role of the ball bearing department, the roles of the secred "plan" and the "all union organization of "In the six years since I have ball bearing supply." But when he was asked what happened solid satisfaction, " our output when trouble arose between him

Original filibusters were a series of cateleptic capers figured to play legislative tiddly-winks with parliamentary sun-spots.

They consisted of running off at the mouth like the mighty Mississippi. And mudding up an oratorical delta of roll-calls, objections, screwball motions and more late riders than the owl train.

Baby's Persistent Cry Should Be Investigated

Some babies are a little fussy; others scream off and on all day. Why this difference occurs is difficult to answer but most physicians agree that crying is not simply a behavior problem. When it persists, the cause should be investigated.

For instance, the American Disgovernment is now charging him tilling Co. owed the Treasury $13,-000,000. It settled for a little over $1,000,000 or 10 cents on the dollar. It hired the tax accounting firm of T. Coleman Andrews, who later became Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

Here are some other tax cases recently settled:

Jack Berk, who, with his wife lately, and in the past three Anne, ran the Vicmore Belt Co. in Flushing, N. Y., owed the Treasury $127,879, settled for $11,000. recently attached a $65,000 trust He presented a doctor's certificate that he had a heart condition and the Treasury let him off with less than 10 cents on the dollar.

> Newman's Lake House, Saratoga Springs, N. Y., owed $152,-605.69 and made a compromise payment of $20,000, of which $2,000 was a down payment, with $3,600 paid annually in five installments at 6 per cent interest. The restaurant is owned by Mrs. Catherine King and her father, John J. King, Sr. The settlement was made because New York State refused to renew the restaurant's liquor license. It went heavily in debt.

Another case was that of ex-Congressman Parnell Thomas of New Jersey, who served time for taking salary kickbacks. He owes $21,362, has a net worth of $11,-200, and offered to compromise for $100. The Treasury refused, finally agreed to take payments from Thomas of all his income over $5,000 a year through the year 1961.

More FCC Politics

More of the Federal Communications' political chickens are coming home to roost. On top of the commissioners' reversal of their examiner in the Boston Herald and Traveler case, they are now in hot water in Jacksonville, Fla.

There, the FCC politicos who decide who shall get the multimillion-dollar television permits, reversed their own examiner and awarded a channel to the Florida-Georgia TV Company. The FCC examiner had ruled in favor of the Jacksonville Broadcasting Company, but, after politics were pulled, the FCC reversed the nonpolitical expert who spent weeks listening to the testimony and deciding which applicant

After making the award to the Florida-Georgia TV Company, it's now revealed that one of the Chief promotors of that company, Harold Cohn, was formerly as-

This was not disclosed by Cohn,

who owns 19 per cent of the station and who is required under FCC rules to disclose his record, The Jacksonville Broadcasting Company has now filled an affidavit showing that Cohn was a "chart writer" with the Jacksonville Kennel Club and the Orange Park Kennel Club, largely owned by Bill Johnston of Chicago, exposed during the Kefauver crime investigation as an associate of underworld hoodlums. Another owner of the dog tracks was John Patton, Chicago gangster and former associate of Frank

CONSTIPATED? New laxative discovery un-locks bowel blocks without gag, bloat or gripe

Constipation is caused by what doctors call a "thrifty" colon that, instead of retaining moisture as it should, does the opposite: robs the colon of so much moisture that its contents become dehydrated, so dry that they block the bowel; so shrunken that they fail to excite or stimulate the urge to purge that propels and expels waste from your body.

To regain normal regularity, the dry, shrunken, constipating contents of your colon which now block your bowel must be remoistened. Second, to 3-T-R-E-T-C-H STIMULATE it to action: to a normal urge to purge. And, of all laxatives, only COLONAID, the amazing new laxative discovery lieves even chronic constipation overnight, Colonald is yet so smooth, so gentle it has proved safe even for women in critical stages of pregnancy. Superior to old style bulk, salt or drug laxatives, Colonaid neither gags, bloats nor gripes; won't interfere with absorption of vitamins and other valuable food nutrients; in clinical tests, did not cause rash or other reactions It's a physiological fact: Exercise tones your body! And COLONAID exercises your colon to tone it against constipation, overnight! Get Colonaid, in easy-to-take tablet form at any drug counter, today! Only 98c for the 60 tablet package, brings positive relief

Tea For Six At FDA

NEW YORK, Feb. 6 P-It was tea for six at the office of the Food and Drug Administration recently. Members of the United States Board of Tea Experts one government man and five industry experts - tasted tea made from 35 grains of each of seven types, then graded the product. The standards will be sent to exporting countries as a guide for the U.S. market.

"Can ya imagine me ever bein' little enough to ride in THAT thing?"

Pension Bill For Teachers Hits A Snag

Delegate Terms Measure 'Greedy'

By GEORGE BOWEN

ANNAPOLIS, Feb. 6 (A)-At least some school teachers aren't behind all demands being made for more state aid for them, two Maryland delegates claime

Del. Larmore. (R-Wicomico) called a request for supplemental pensions "greedy, but I don't believe the teachers themselves are guilty of it. There is somebody else behind it. He told the House Ways and
